

Living with Less in a Society That Has More

Date: Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, 2022

Time: 8-9:30 PM ET (7-8:30 PM CT /6-7:30 PM MT) via Zoom

Description: Does the assertion that “less is more” resonate with you? Christian spirituality proposes a Gospel-centered understanding of the quality of life... one capable of deep enjoyment free of the obsession with consumption... with a return to that simplicity which allows us to stop and appreciate the small things (Laudato Si #222). Explore the impact of Pope Francis’ vision on you and our world today.

Presenters: Anne Michele Berry, CDP, has ministered as a Sister of Divine Providence of San Antonio in the fields of education, spiritual direction, retreat ministry, vocational discernment, and congregational administration. She now offers spiritual outreach services through PROSO Ministry.

Ana Maria De La Portilla, PhD, ACDP directs the Office of Texas CDP Associates and Civitas Community Development Corp. She promotes PROSO spiritual growth and collaborative ministry among Associates from various faith traditions living in the United States and Mexico.

Options and Costs:

- The $15 Basic Option includes presentations and handouts.
- The $65 PLUS! Option includes the presentations and an individual hour with a presenter or PROSO spiritual companion. Time and dates for individual consultations are set after registration/payment is complete.
